Dear Harold:

The newspaper man is Earl Golz. The Hunts' were cut loose as follows: W.H. Hunt, obstruction charges dismissed; N.B. Hunt and Ralph Shank, five for action bordering on contempt of Court.

Hal Woodard, the Federal Judge, has not set a trial for Foreman. I will try to dig up the newspaper clippings for you.

I think Henry Gonzales, who will head the House Committee, is a good person.

I am making the overhead at the office and am paid very little for my time.

Best regards and stay in touch,

Paul
